

Are you?

- An unemployed previously disadvantaged South African citizen
- Interested in small electrical appliance repair
- Able to read and write and do basic maths
- A self-motivated person who is not expecting a job but rather wants to take charge of your future and is prepared to do the work required.

We run a two year programme that teaches men to run a small trading business. After 3 weeks of training you will start buying and repairing small electrical appliances to resell them. You will learn about running a business and be able to earn money at the same time.

If you are interested in knowing more and applying you need to be at our premises:

Berg River Park on the corner of Driebergen and Jan van Riebeeck roads
(opposite the Dal Josaphat stadium)
